

Croy 23 Translations

P&R

1. The teacher of righteousness dismissed the crowds in order that, having departed into the villages, they might buy bread for themselves.
2. Let us gather the people into the temple in order that we might be comforted through the scriptures.
3. Wherever you enter into a house, if you find there the book of the law, you will know that the glory of God is remaining in that place.
4. Let us no longer | be judging (pres) / judge (aor) | one another, for when we are judging our brothers and sisters, we are not fulfilling the will of the spirit.
5. How will we live in this world in order that the people may see the light of the gospel?
6. If I do not greet her at the door nor offer water to be drinking, the mother of my wife will not return again to our house.
7. I will never cast out the one who is coming to me, and the one seeking peace I will never send into the wilderness.
8. If you do not sanctify the Lord in your hearts, how will you worship him forever?
9. Whenever you are praying you will not be like the ones loving to be praying in the streets in order that the people might see them.
10. Let us no longer | be / keep on | sinning against heaven, but let us | be / keep on | working the good in order that we may be children of the dominion of God.
11. They will never again buy bread in this village, for all the ones who ate it are no longer living.
12. And whenever the son of humanity comes, the writings of the prophets will be fulfilled.
13. When I was with you I | was saying / used to say |, "Let us not be fearing sin nor death, for we are no longer slaves of the flesh."
14. Shall we | be / keep on | drinking wine until we are not able to be walking nor to be speaking?