First Impressions

(How did it look? What was the 'tone'? What were your first responses? Was there anything in the presentation that surprised you? Overall, did you like it?)

Upon Further Reflection...

(What questions do you find the presentation raising for you? What new ways of thinking about the parable did it suggest? What [emotional] responses did the presentation elicit? What are you still having to reflect on?)

The Parable and the Re-Presentation

(Was the presentation 'faithful' to the parable? Did the presentation deal with the 'original' parable or with the version of it as we now have it in one of the Gospels? Did the presentation coincide with the Gospel framing of the parable? How does this presentation cohere within the larger context of Jesus' ministry?)

What did you like best about the presentation?

What might be done differently that would improve the presentation?
